KIDS HELP PHONE

PARENT
help line

Each and every day, the professional counsellors at Kids Help Phone and Parent Help Line answer calls and online questions from across the country, listening to abused children, helping suicidal kids, counselling confused and worried parents – the list goes on and on. Last year, counsellors answered calls from children and families in almost 3,000 Canadian communities, responding to all issues and situations. When Canadians reach out for help, we are there for them with the caring, professional support and information they need – all day and every day of the year.

Please join us on Tuesday,
December 2, 2003 and help us to reach our goal of $1,000,000 for Kids Help Phone and Parent Help
Line.
